Bright side of proposition 13

I was driving down the loop street and those street lights are red! I don't think this is very appropriate for our city and it isn't very effective either. Whose bright idea was this?

Local Motorist

Editor's note: This is the second complaint we've received. We also observed those "red lights" several months ago. The true color is yellow or amber. But, when they are first turned on in the evening, they do look red for a half hour or so.

What's not happening to the old Chez property on Pollard road (west of the railroad tracks)?

Curious

Editor's note: According to the planning department the shell of the building on that property has been removed and the land cleared. It will be part of a 56-unit townhouse development.

Everywhere you look in Campbell it seems they are building, building, building. I think this city is developed enough already and it's about time we thought about controlling future growth like Los Gatos is doing.

Concerned

I was sorry to read about the skating rink not being built out near (John D. Morgan Park). I think it's a shame. Instead of another apartment I think the city should have some other type of recreation out there. How about a putting green?

Local Grandma

I was delighted by the number you did on Prop. 13. All I can say is, ain't it the truth. Still, there is a bright side to "13." The last three or four years people have looked so anemic and pale that I thought the smog was doing them in. As it turns out they were bled white with property taxes. Notice the color returning to their cheeks?

F.M.L.

Was John D. Morgan, the former police chief, injured in the line of duty? My friend and I was discussing this and I wasn't sure. Also doesn't he have 7 or 8 children?

INTERESTED

Editor's note: Former Chief Morgan, who suffered a major stroke in 1971, was considered injured in the line of duty. He and his wife, Connie, have eight children ranging in age from 14 to 23. They also have three grandchildren. Reporter Vicki Johnsen interviewed Morgan last week and that story will be in the July 27 issue of the PRESS.

New buildings are sprouting up up like weeds

BUILDING permits for 144 dwelling units valued at $5.6 million were issued in June by the Campbell Building Department. Included in that total is a 60-unit apartment complex at 3555 S. Bascom ave. planned by William Rosen Enterprises.

The total of $5.8 million in building construction for June brings the yearly total to date to an impressive $16.4 million or $7 million more than last year at this time.

An indication of the local building boom is the more than $21,000 in fees the building department collected in June. This is over half the $38,780 in fees collected for the entire 1975-76 fiscal year.

Permits for 84 single family homes were issued last month bringing the yearly total to 139 units, compared to 89 in June of 1977.

The largest home developments were by Woodgate Development and Williams Development. Williams is constructing 38 homes in the Capri drive area while Woodgate will be building 32 homes in the Burrows, Pollard and Bracebridge court area.

OTHER NEW homes are planned for Westmont and Harriet avenues.

Inflation in the housing industry is apparent in average cost per home, between 1977 and 1978. In June of last year the average cost was $42,600 compared to $47,600 for June, 1978.

Multiple dwelling units had the slight edge in building value for the year with seven permits totaling $6.7 million. Single family home construction was a close second with $6.6 million and industrial construction was third with eight permits valued at $1.5 million.

Commercial development is about half that of last year at this time with five permits totaling $498,564 while commercial alterations and additions have doubled, from $260,000 last June to $522,000 so far this year.

School budget cuts eyed

By PAT SAFFORD

CLOSING SAN Tomas and Sherman Oaks schools this September and eliminating bus transportation and after school sports are a few of the proposals made by Superintendent Walt Hauss of the Campbell elementary school district.

Hauss told trustees last week they need to shave $1.5 million off the estimated $12.1 million budget for this year. The elimination of summer school has already supplied $200,000 of that total.

In a 22-page report which Hauss commented on Monday, he suggested budget cuts totaling $2.3 million, or $1 million more than needed to balance the budget.

School trustees will discuss the proposals at tonight's board meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the district office, 155 N. Third st. A public hearing on the budget is set for Wednesday, July 26 at 7:30 p.m. at the district office and Hauss said public comment will be welcome.

SAN TOMAS and Sherman Oaks were originally slated for a September, 1979 closing but moving that schedule up a year would save about $100,000, according to district officials. Elimination of the transportation program would save another $250,000, plus a similar amount from the capital improvement fund for four new $64,000 buses now on order. Mandated busing of special education students would continue.

The elimination of the community service programs, which were formerly funded by a 5 cent override tax, would include after school sports, summer recreation, noon duty supervisors and part of the maintenance costs for school.

Other cuts proposed and the amounts that would be saved include: the elementary music program ($45,000), salary hikes since Jan. 1 ($489,686), junior high towel service ($18,500), substitute teachers ($110,000), six vacant maintenance positions ($91,000), half the school custodians ($78,645) and half the instructional supplies ($18,000). The junior high music program would be continued.

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT Ron Rescigno said substitute teaching duties would be handled by the estimated 23 unassigned "pool" teachers plus school administrators.

Other cuts proposed include three district office coordinators ($15,000), reduce postage by 50 percent ($3,725), in-district car mileage allowances ($3,050) and four school clerks ($21,600).

Bid awarded

Factory parking district flies

Christmas is the target date for completion of a two-decker parking lot behind The Factory shopping center in downtown Campbell.

Friday night the City Council awarded the contract for construction of the structure to E.A. Hathaway and Co. for the low bid of $1,158,000.

The entire project, which will provide 478 parking spaces for the center and nearby Wrinkled Prune Annex, totals $1.7 million.

With the sale of the bonds completed the city stands to regain approximately $100,000 in engineering and other costs it paid for the ill-fated original downtown parking district.

That plan, which would have served the entire downtown area, failed when most of the property owners protested costs had gone too high. Much of that preliminary work was used by The Factory owners in completing their parking district plans.

The net proceeds to Campbell though, when the funds come to the city August 2, will be about $50,000. The other $50,000 has been set aside by the city to help guarantee the bonds if the local shopping center defaults on their payments.

The original parking district has still not been dismissed by the Council even though the original bids expired more than a year ago. Bond attorney Phil Assaf advised the Council Friday they should consider dropping that district.

While the vote to award the bids was unanimous Councilman Ralph Doetsch expressed concern over a concrete parking structure he'd seen in Santa Rosa earlier that week.

"It's falling apart," Doetsch said, "and it's only been there 10 years."

The councilman was assured by a spokesman for the construction firm that their reinforced concrete structure would last 50 years.

Suit threatened

Shopping center dispute still unresolved

By CHUCK HILDEBRAND

LONG-PROMISED improvements at the Campbell Shopping Center, corner of Winchester boulevard and Latimer avenue, still have not been made by the landlords, tenants charge — and the tenants are getting impatient.

Adam Alb, owner of Alb's Esquire Barber Shop in the center and secretary-treasurer of the Campbell Shopping Center Merchants Association (CSCMA), says the tenants will file a civil suit against the four landlords if conditions aren't improved "within a couple of weeks."

The one landlord that was available for comment disclaimed responsibility for repairs.

A letter to the four landlords from attorney Hugh Thomson, representing the tenants, earlier this year, alleged that deterioration in the following areas existed at that time:

- The walkway roof between the stores reportedly leaked.
- No lights in the delivery alley behind the stores, a condition the tenants claim contributed to several burglaries.
- Potholes in the parking lot.
- No lights in the parking area or walkway despite the presence of fixtures.

- THE EXTERIOR of the buildings needed painting.
- The center sign was damaged.
- Garbage pickup and cleaning services were termed inadequate.

According to Thomson, the tenants are currently getting estimates on the costs of repairs and will present those to the landlords. If the landlords still refuse to make the repairs, Thomson says, his clients will probably take them to court.

The tenants withheld their rents in March in protest over the conditions at the center and were reportedly promised at the time that something would be done.

BUT ALB SAYS the only improvements since then have been initiated by the merchants.

Alb said the tenants installed lightbulbs in the parking lot and now sweep in front of their shops. Those are the only improvements that have been made since March despite the prodding of the CSCMA, Alb claims.

Ole Olszewski of Campbell Jewelers, another center merchant, said the main problem from what he understands, involves getting all the landlords together.

Of the four landlords mentioned in Thomson's letter, only Phil Labrador of Westside Development Company, could be contacted. He angrily denied responsibility for the repairs.

Mick Yates, another of the owners originally named in the letter from Thomson, said he sold his share of the property to Lawrence Soo Hoo, who plans to open a restaurant in the shopping center.

SOO HOO SAID he is in the dark about necessary improvements in the center, but says he will handle all necessary repairs to his property, including the leaky roof.

Soo Hoo expressed concern about the general appearance and condition of the center, calling the area in back of the complex "like a junkyard."

Efforts to reach the other two landlords proved unsuccessful.

TUNING UP for the Summer Music Program Concert this Thursday, July 27 is Ben Steinberg, one of the young musicians in the city-sponsored program. The free concert begins at 7:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church, 800 Ironwood drive, San Jose. Directing will be Wally Johnson, Sam Talluto, Hilda Cayward and Bob Crawford. With the state cutback of funding for summer school, the summer music program of the Campbell elementary school district was to be dropped until Campbell stepped in as sponsor. A total of 170 youngsters are taking part this year under a tuition program paid for by parents.

Local repairman says yes

Does your local school district bus children in unsafe vehicles?

By CHUCK HILDEBRAND

THE operator of a local bus rental and maintenence service charged that buses operated by numerous area school districts are unsafe — charges that were denied by a California Highway Patrol official in charge of school bus safety in the state and by one of the districts.

Fred Wagener, owner of Coast Counties charter service, 1436 White Oaks Road, Campbell, and a veteran of more than 40 years in the bus and truck repair business, says the district should have invested in the more expensive buses for both safety and financial reasons.

Wagener repairs buses for many school districts in the Santa Clara Valley, and says there's "no comparison" between the more inexpensive buses and the more costly coaches.

He estimates districts spend twice as much money on bus repair for the $23,000 buses as for their $65,000 counterparts.

In addition, Wagener claims that protection for passengers is minimal in the $23,000 buses. He recalled one $3,000 repair job he performed, caused by a truck backing into a side panel, that he says would have required minimal repairs, if any, in a $65,000 vehicle.

ACCORDING to Wagener, the more expensive buses have side panels containing between one and two inches of steel, while the other buses have little more than a sheet of metal between the children and the outside.

However, Wagener's claims of safety problems in the buses were discounted by Fred Sowash, co-ordinator of the CHP's school bus safety program.

"There's no vehicle on the highway today that gets more attention than school buses," he declared. "We wouldn't let the buses into the state if they weren't adequate."

Wagener mentioned these other factors in his condemnation of the $23,000 buses:

• The use of rivets and screws instead of welds in the construction of the $23,000 buses. If the screws and rivets come loose, according to Wagener, the bus allegedly becomes a safety hazard both in a collision and in terms of the sharp edges that are exposed.

• Weaknesses in the U-joints that hold the undercarriage together. Wagener says one bus he fixed had a U-joint come loose at 20 miles per hour and the whole undercarriage fell apart. "Imagine what would have happened on a freeway," he said.

• The modulating brake system used on the less expensive buses, which Wagener calls unreliable.

• Transmission problems. Wagener says most of the $65,000 buses he works on have had no serious transmission problems, while virtually none of the $23,000 buses he's had in his shop survive more than a few years without needing new transmissions.

• General lack of longtime reliability in comparison to more expensive makes. Wagener says he knows of only one that has stayed in service for as long as ten years in this area.

AS FAR as maintanence costs for the $65,000 vehicles go, Larry Lyden, assistant superintendent of the Campbell union high school district, says the CUHSD has no complaints about the upkeep costs of its buses.

Lyden also praised the longevity of the more costly coaches, noting that bus' passage must be placed inside.

"No bus can be put into service until the motor carriers inspect it," emphasized Sowash, who added that additional inspections are required by law each 13 months.

After a fleet-wide inspection of each district, Sowash said, the district is issued one of three ratings. If it receives the lowest ranking it is subject to 30-day inspections and possible shutdown of the operation if the buses are not brought up to specifications.

Sowash compared the $65,000 and $23,000 bus purchases to a decision between buying a Cadillac and a Ford — nearly the exact comparison drawn by the district at the time of the purchase.

ACCORDING to Joseph F. Zemaitis of the San Francisco office of the U.S. Department of Transportation, a flock of new bus safety requirements has gone into effect in the past two years, many as a result of the tragic Martinez school bus crash in 1976.

Among the new requirements, according to Zemaitis, are added roll-over protection, crash cushioning, fuel system improvement, steps to prevent the falling out of windows, more accessible emergency exits and improved warning systems.

However, he admitted there's still no way to actually test a bus' crash reaction except to crash-test it, which is currently not done. The manufacturer is required by law to guarantee the safety of the bus, but other than the CHP inspections there is no way to determine the validity of the guarantee, Zemaitis said.

Superintendent Dick Davis of Moreland school district, which recently purchased a number of $23,000 buses, expressed confidence that the transaction was the right move for his district.

"For our purposes and our time, with our enrollment going down 10 percent each year, it seemed appropriate for us to buy the conventional ($23,000) buses," he said.

"It's a value judgment in terms of current trends, but not in terms of safety," Davis added. "I would never say that a $23,000 bus is as good as a $65,000 bus, but as far as safety goes they're comparable."

WAGENER called the contention that the $23,000 buses are safe "a bunch of hogwash."

He mentioned one independent study in which an expensive 1942 bus was rammed head-on into a 1967 model of an inexpensive make. He claimed that the older bus sustained only a few hundred dollars damage while the newer one was totalled.

"All they're doing is taking engineers' reports as to their (the buses') stability and strength," he said. "They haven't actually taken a bus and dropped it upside down — they're doing it with figures and a pencil."

FRED WAGENER, who claims that many school buses in the area are sub-standard, takes a break from work at his bus rental and repair service at 1436 WhiteOaks rd., Campbell. Wagener has been in the transportation business for over 40 years.

Trustees disagree

College cutbacks are eyed

West Valley College District will be paring down its management employees this fall. But just where, and who is the knotty problem Superintendent Jim Hardy is tackling.

Hardy will be making a report back to the governing board "as soon as possible" so trustees can discuss changes before final adoption of the budget in September.

At the Thursday night board meeting most trustees had their own ideas of how that paring should be done. And they didn't agree.

Foster Lopes moved that "the board direct the superintendent to make a report at the earliest possible time relative to the possible elimination of certificated and classified positions (management) and the possible merger of these positions into fewer positions."

Lopes later withdrew that motion when Board Member John Cantlen termed it "too vague" and said he felt the superintendent already had enough information about what the board wanted.

Both Lopes and Trustee Wade Brummal stated during the meeting they did not want to lay off any classified personnel.

Trustee Carol LaMarre said she was in favor of weeding out the "incompetent or less dedicated, since these people degrade the entire group." She said she would be happy to receive phone calls from "people with information that I can weed out and then make decisions on."

Cantlen later countered that he was not interested in getting involved in a "witch hunt." "I do think some restructuring needs to be done," he added.

Jeff Block sure has his ups....and downs

EVER HAVE that feeling that life is going around in circles? For Jeff Block, it is — literally.

Block, 21 a substitute custodian for the Campbell Union School District, is making an assault on the world's record of 29 consecutive days on a ferris wheel.

He's doing it at the Frontier Village Amusement park in San Jose along with fellow ferrisnaut Rena Clark. As of last Friday the pair had completed 16 days on the wheel without a hitch — save for a sore derriere and fatique caused by last week's heat wave.

Motion sickness hasn't been a problem at all, according to Block. "My stomach's so used to going around in circles by now it doesn't bother me a bit," he says.

THE TWO would be record holders sleep on a platform with a sleeping bag attached to the wheel. They're allowed five minutes per hour off the wheel, and they accumulate their time so that they can get more extended respites.

Block undertook the project after answering an ad by Frontier Village. He was interviewed at length several times and had to survive a four-hour test ride before he and Clark were accepted.

The project is to benefit the San Jose Police Athletic League, and Block says the goal is to raise money for the proposed PAL gymnasium on San Jose's east side.

Block said $1,136 was raised during the first week of the ordeal, and funds are coming in at the rate of about $1,000 a week.

WHEN AND if the pair shatters the existing 29-day record, will they try for more?

Block says he's game if the park will allow it. "If Rena and I are crazy enough to do it, I hope they let us try for a longer record. I want to hold it (the record) for a while."

What would possess somebody to spend an entire month on a ferris wheel?

"I like ferris wheels," explained Block.

Diridon hosts a budget meeting

Everything you wanted to know about the county budget will be presented at a meeting of the Fourth District Budget Task Force this Monday, July 24 in Supervisor Rod Diridon's west valley field office, 700 Gale drive.

A "crisis of opportunity" is what Diridon has titled his county budget briefing and update on the budget hearing process, local impact of Prop. 13 and the "managed attrition" policy of the county to reduce the work force without layoffs.

For information about the task force call 866-1106.

Plenty of use for old school

Early indications are that the old Campbell grammar school would have plenty of use if acquired by the city for a neighborhood center.

Of the 207 letters sent out to groups and agencies the city has received a response from 22 in the first two weeks.

According to Terry Ellis, city administrative assistant, all but one group says they would be interested in using the building, either occassionally or regularly. And about half of those say they would have the ability to pay some fee for use of the facility.

At the July 11 meeting of the Grammar School Task Force members also reviewed plans for an engineering consultant to come up with an estimate of the cost for renovating the building. City councilmen, on a 3-2 vote, earlier authorized spending up to $10,000 on the study. Selection of the consultant is expected to be made by the end of July.

The next meeting of the task force is scheduled for Tuesday, August 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the employee lounge of City Hall, 75 N. Central ave.

How to save your energy on a hot afternoon.

Close your drapes.
Turn off your appliances between noon and 6 p.m.
Set your air conditioner at 78°.
Make a pitcher of lemonade.
Wash your dog.
Slurp an ice cream cone.
Take a sail, a snooze, or a splash.

Besides relaxing and having a good time, one of the smartest things to do on a hot summer afternoon is to turn off your appliances. The greatest demand for electricity is between noon and 6 p.m. on hot afternoons. By not using your appliances during this period you will help get Northern and Central California through a rather tight squeeze until new electric generating plants can be put into service.

So take the afternoon off. Check the doors and windows for weatherstripping. Run your major appliances when it's cooler. Especially your air conditioner. If you must use it, set it at 78° or higher. Or use a fan instead.

We have a booklet full of summer conservation tips, free for the asking. By cutting down in small ways, you can save a lot of energy, as well as money.

Have a nice summer. And remember, when it's hot, save your energy.

No one can afford to waste energy.

Post office stork watch

Postal workers at the main post office on Meridian avenue have become avid bird watchers. Actually, egg watchers would be more like it.

It all started on July 10 when Campbell businesswoman Pat Madden purchased a one-ton Chevy van at the surplus vehicle sale and discovered a nest with two small, white eggs tucked away in the rear air vent.

She persuaded the post office to move their old van to an out-of-the way spot in the lot and leave it until the eggs hatch and the baby birds leave the nest.

The mother bird apparently liked the arrangement because she returned a short time later and laid two more eggs which should be hatching about July 25 or 26.

Madden says she doesn't know what type of bird eggs are housed in her white van but thinks they are sparrows or linnets.

"The eggs are about the size of my fingernail," she explained.

The process, from eggs to baby birds to fledgling flyers, will take a month to six weeks. So what will Madden do in the meantime to ferry around her auction gallery supplies?

"I'll be renting a truck," she sighed. "That's what I was doing before I bought the van anyway."

Investigation continues into murder of teacher

San Jose police are still conducting a concentrated search for the killer of Branham High School teacher Diane Peterson.

According to Lieutenant Ewing, officer in charge of the homicide division, there are a number of leads they are currently investigating; however, there is "nothing positive" yet.

Ewing noted in an interview July 12 that neighbors of the slain woman as well as several former students have been questioned. The focus of their search, he said, remains on the hunt for a man in his late teens or early 20's with "discolored or crooked teeth" seen fleeing the campus by a passing bicyclist shortly after the murder.

Ewing added that he has ruled out a flunking grade as a possible motive because he feels "no one could carry a grudge over a grade that would be so great it would result in murder."

Peterson, 26, was stabbed once in the chest, June 16, in the hallway just outside her classroom. Attacked shortly after noon, she tried to make her way to the office before collapsing. Peterson died about an hour later at Good Samaritan Hospital.

Swatting roaches: this was no vacation

Got a problem? Tell it to Consumers United at P.O. Box 311, Palo Alto, Ca. 94302, or call 494-1858 for help.

Three years ago we took a well-planned (on paper) tour to Holland, Belgium and Switzerland. The transportation was late or broke down frequently, the accommodations were third rate and we spent most of our evenings swatting cockroaches. These hotels were also located in parts of town that had no proximity to any "fine restaurants" that we had been promised.

This tour could best be described as fraudulant. When we returned after two nine-hour waits at two airports and contacted the travel agent, we were met with a shrug and the statement that "these things happen."

We sued the agent and recovered $750, but nothing can replace our lost time and the general misery of our experiences for two and one half weeks. How can we protect ourselves against the same things happening on our "tour" that we are planning to Spain and Italy? Vacations are too precious to waste.

Mr. and Mrs.
Marvin McRae
Palo Alto

Until the Federal Trade Commission stops dithering about and comes up with standards to govern tour operators, you and every other traveler may be subject to promises, promises, and no delivery. Your only defense is to tie up the travel agent or tour operator with a well-written contract that expresses in writing each and every promise and stipulation offered by the travel agent.

The average agent will tell you that they are ultimately dependable and if there is any "problem," they will correct it. Verbal contracts or promises are worth about 10¢ per ton in a declining dollar economy.

The carefully written contract won't recover your lost vacation time, but will recover your dollars and perhaps damages as partial compensation for your lost and valuable vacation days. The travel agent is the prime contractor and bears the prime responsibility.

Our daughter is now at driving age and can afford to buy a car, but she can't afford the insurance. Do you know of any insurance company that offers significantly lower rates than all the others?

John Vasquez,
Santa Clara

Have her car listed in your name and your daughter listed as a part-time driver. This will reduce the rates to a manageable level. Purchase of the older car and elimination of the collision aspects of your insurance coverage will drop your premiums significantly.

In 1977, partially because of the 55 mph speed limit, the insurance companies saw a startling reduction in claims. Coupled with a 60 percent increase in auto insurance premiums since 1975 handed insurance companies a 21 percent return on net worth. Windfall profits, plus!

We are considering the purchase of a new gas stove without pilot lights. It uses an "igniter" to light the gas when the oven or burners are turned on. I worry about the "igniters" not working and the gas filling the house and maybe exploding.

Mrs. Tia Formere,
Los Altos

The system is almost fail safe and the circumstances you postulate won't happen. You will see a nice saving on your gas bill after the stove is installed. "No pilot lights" is good news.

I need a replacement engine for my '68 Chevvy and have located one at a car junk yard in East Palo Alto. The dealer will guarantee it and the price is only $650. Some of my friends say "Don't do it." What's your opinion?

Mack Salas,
San Jose

Mack's old engine is an in-line six that could be totally rebuilt for about $500. This "dealer's" guarantee is worthless. Shopping at these junk yards for an engine usually produces more high-priced junk.

Send a stamped (50¢) 8"x10" or larger self-addressed envelope to Consumers United, P.O. Box 311, Palo Alto 94302, for your 13 volumes of the Shell Car Answer Books and four surprise enclosures. Call us to arrange for extra copies if your club group or class wants them.

Hastings performs organ mini-concert

Karen Hastings will present a special mini-concert during the worship service this Sunday, July 23 at the Congregational Church of Campbell. The young woman, organist at the Cupertino Union Church, will be one of nine recipients of the annual scholarship awards given by the church.

The service begins at 10 a.m. at the 400 W. Campbell ave. church.

Hastings, a Campbell High School and San Jose state university graduate, is completing her master's degree this summer. She plans to go to Paris in September to study under the renowned composer and teacher, Dr. Jean Langlais, the blind organist of Sainte Clotilde.

The church scholarships are given in memory of S.G. and Ada E. Nelson, long-time Campbell residents and members of the church, through the Florence Nelson Foundation of San Francisco.

KAREN HASTINGS

The local musician, daughter of Marilyn Hastings of Campbell and George Hastings of Campbell, began her organ career under the direction of the church's organist, Colin J. Ford, while still in high school. She has continued her study under leading area organists and has given several concerts in Palo Alto.

Are you game for bingo?

Do you have an insatiable craving for a game of bingo?

If so, there are three places in Campbell where you can indulge your whim.

The big bingo center in town is St. Lucy's Church, 2350 S. Winchester blvd., where games held each Tuesday night feature prizes ranging from $50 to $250, according to bingo chairman Jim Carlton.

Carlton says 14 games are held each evening and cards are priced at six for $3. From 200 to 220 people participate weekly, Carlton adds. Play begins at 7:30 p.m.

The games, which have been going on at the church for nearly six years, net the school operated by the church between $750 and $1,000 per month, according to Carlton.

A new local bingo outlet is the Morning Light Lodge, a member of the International Organization of Odd Fellows, 276 E. Campbell ave.

The Morning Light Lodge games run on Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m. and include three earlybird games, three getaway games and 12 regular games.

For more information call 378-9924.

In addition, Campbell Community Seniors, through Campbell Community Services, offers "penny-ante" bingo for those 55 and older.

The games are held on the fourth Tuesday of each month in the community room of the Campbell Library, 75 N. Central ave.

Cards may be purchased for a penny and the winner of each game collects all the pennies.

The only other local licensee under the new bingo laws that legalized bingo statewide for a number of new groups is the Paseo de Palomas Mobile Home Park, 295 Union ave.

However, the games there are open only to residents and their guests.

According to a spokesperson, between 35 to 40 people participate each night and the cash taken in is redistributed as prizes.

PRIZES in local bingo tourneys range from $250 at the large games to under $2 at the monthly bingo sessions of the Campbell Community Seniors. So far four organizations have sought and received bingo permits under the new state law relaxing the "rules of the game."

Rangers roll to District TOC crown

THE farther a team advances in a tournament, the tougher the competition seems to get. And the Quito Little League Rangers certainly proved that to the rest of the teams in the District 12 Tournament of Champions last week — because the farther they got, the tougher they got!

The Rangers rolled all the way to the District TOC championship last week with three straight victories, winning the title with an impressive 11-0 win over the American Little League.

The Rangers, ripping the ball for .375 team average in the tourney, handled Lincoln-Glen 6-2 and Union 6-3 to get into the title game and then rolled by American for the title.

Tom Larson tossed a four-hitter, fanning eight and walking two, to lead the Rangers past Lincoln-Glen and Larson came back to combine with Doug Bacho for a three-hitter, the two fanning seven and walking only two, in the Ranger win over Union.

Craig Tami was the Ranger pitcher in the finale against American and responded to the pressure by tossing a two-hit shutout to lift Quito to the title. The 11 year old walked just three and wiffed five in the championship win.

MATT Crawford supplied much of the offense in the last two games, stroking two-run homers in each victory.

Crawford was one of the top hitters in the tournament for the Rangers, finishing the three games six for 12 to share the team lead in hits.

Larson was six for nine in the tournament and Bacho and Bill Rehbock were each five for 10. Jodi Leibert was three for five in the three games.

Mike Peters, Anthony Sanchez, Eric Summa, Ricky Dunham, Scott Kellner and Brian McCollom also played well in the TOC for the Rangers.

The Rangers won their first 16 straight games this season before losing three straight. They came back to win two more in the regular season, including a 6-3 win over the Tigers in the title game, to get into the TOC. The Rangers finished the year with a 21-3 record.

Five members of the Ranger team (Larson, Bacho, Crawford, Rehbock and Peters) were picked to the Quito major division all-star team that will open District 12 play on Friday, July 21, against Cambrian at the Los Gatos Little League field on Blossom Hill road. Game time is 5:30 p.m.

Roberts cops bat crown

Mets capture Pony title with Dodger-type play

By CHUCK HILDEBRAND

WHAT WAS good enough for the 1965 Los Angeles Dodgers turned out to be good enough for this year's Campbell Optimist Mets of the Campbell Moreland Pony League as well.

The '65 Dodgers won a world championship on the strength of pitching, defense, speed and a minimum of hitting.

And this season, the Mets took their third CM Pony title in four years in the same manner.

They put the crown on ice last Tuesday with a 5-1 victory over the Fontanetti's Yankees in the finals of the league play-offs.

Bob Straight, the ace of the Mets staff with an 8-1 record and an earned run average of 1.40, was at his best in the clincher, twirling a one-hitter.

Straight recorded 13 strikeouts and walked only three. He spotted the Yanks a run in the first on Dave Bryant's single but perplexed the opposing batsmen thereafter.

Russ Cooper singled in two runs in the first to boost the Mets into a lead that they never relinquished. The winners added single tallies in the fourth, fifth and seventh, with alert baserunning playing a part in all three scores.

YANKEE HURLER Rich Alvarez surrendered only four hits but untimely wildness combined with several defensive leaks led to his demise.

The Yankees earned their berth in the play-off finals Monday by edging the Magoo's Pizza Pirates 2-1 behind Dominic Costantino's five-hitter.

Costantino prevailed in a mound duel against the Pirates' Doug Kercher, who allowed just three safeties.

Mike Catalana's safety squeeze bunt brought Alvarez across with the decider in the sixth inning.

Costantino slapped two of the Yankees' three hits, while the Pirates' Joray Marrujo solved Costantino for three singles.

Meanwhile, the league's two all-star teams were selected last week.

The 'A' team included league batting champion Bill Roberts and Scott Freear of the Tigers; John Murphy of the Cubs; Al Vanegas and Harold Sutherland of the Cardinals; Steve Clinton of the Dodgers; Alvarez and Costantino of the Yankees; Straight and Eric Crawford of the Mets; Brett Blackwell and Glenn Davis of the Pirates; Mike Walsh and Paul Sargis of the A's; and Ed Rodriguez of the Giants.

'B' team members include Steve Koontz of the Dodgers; John Benjamin and Rich Hegerty of the Cubs; Jerry Zaro, Marrujo and Kercher of the Pirates; Jim Walsh of the A's; Tom Gricius and Steve Takaki of the Cardinals; Craig Trinidad, Todd Phillips, John Heidemann and Mike Reilly of the Giants; and Russ Cooper and Brad Ceynowa of the Mets.

THE B TEAM opens next Tuesday in an area tourney at Fisher Field in Los Gatos. They'll take on the Santa Clara B team at 5:30 p.m.

The A team is idle until August 8 when it hosts a regional tourney at John D. Morgan Park. The winner of that five-team, double elimination affair moves on to the divisionals in Kennewick, Wash., and the winner at Kennewick is seeded into the Pony World Series in National City, near San Diego.

Final regular season statistics showed Roberts breezing to the batting championship with a percentage of .430 compared to second place Murphy's .391.

Roberts, a righthanded batter who will be a freshman at Bellarmine Prep this fall, blazed away at a .477 (21 for 44) clip during the second half of the season compared to .371 for the first half.

Roberts also paced the league in runs-batted-in with 21, extra base hits with 16 and triples with four. His eight doubles were second to the Cubs' Benjamin, who had 10, and his four homeruns were second to Murphy's five.

Vanegas was third in the batting derby at .349, followed by Koontz (.346) and Benjamin (.345).

In the pitching department, Gricius, a 13-year-old in a league usually dominated by 14-year-olds, took the ERA crown with a microscopic 0.42.

Gricius, recovering from two broken legs suffered during the off-season, permitted just four earned runs in 69 frames of work.

Alvarez struck out nearly two batters per inning (148 K's in 75 frames) en route to an 8-1 ledger and an ERA of 0.77 and Blackwell compiled a 5-1 mark with a 0.91 ERA.

Willow Glen claims Campbell LL crown

AFTER FINISHING second to Moose Lodge in both the first and second halves of the regular season, Willow Glen Optimists finally captured the 1978 Campbell Little League's major division championship recently by beating Moose in two straight games of their best of three play-off series.

Willow Glen, which posted a 20-8 record during the regular season, had nudged Fontanetti's 4-3 in a semi-final contest to determine which team would earn the right to meet Moose Lodge for the overall title.

Eric Miller's run scoring single in the fifth inning proved to be the game winning hit in Willow Glen's victory over Fontanetti's.

David Niemeyer, who had two hits in the win, posted the victory with three strong innings of relief.

Willow Glen then opened its series with Moose Lodge by registering another 4-3 win.

Tony Hemphill, the regular season home run champ, belted a triple in the fourth inning, driving in what proved to be the game winning run.

HEMPHILL AND Niemeyer both collected two hits for the winners while Brent Hahn was three for three for Moose.

Larry Miranda worked four innings on the mound to pick up the win.

Willow Glen then clinched the title with a 3-1 triumph over Moose Lodge. Brien Bertolin worked four innings for the win.

Hemphill again lashed the game winning hit, another run scoring triple, while Jerry Feroben added an insurance run with an RBI single.

Steve Cena rapped two hits for the losers.

The Campbell Little League major division all-star team was announced recently and includes Brent Hahn, Bill Tsamis, Steve Cena and Jerry Pennington of Moose Lodge; Tony Hemphill and Brien Bertolin of Willow Glen Optimists; Dave Brown, Dave Meyer and Mike Medefesser of Fontanetti's; Daryl Jones and Danny Profit of Breuners; Robert Artery of D's Automotive; Andy Buchanan of Campbell Plaza, and Wayne Terwilliger of Doetsch. Lou Romero of Campbell Plaza will serve as the team's manager.

The major all-stars open tournament play Friday evening against either El Camino or Tri-Cities.

UNDEFEATED CHAMPS — The Moreland Bobby Sox Mets became the first team in league history to go undefeated, winning all 20 of its games. The undefeated champs included Kelli Archie, Barbie Chylak, Terri Darst, Ericka win, Patricia Guerrero, Grace Ley, Anne Monks, Wendi Niblett, Bernie Ryan, Korrina Scadden, Angela Termine and Tammy Torres. Betty Scadden was the Mets' manager and her coaches were John Scadden and Mike True. Fran Torres was the team mother.

Galloway spark West Valley to minor Sox win

By ANNE BRENNAN

TISH GALLOWAY cracked a bases loaded triple to lead the West Valley Bobby Sox minor all-stars to a 9-5 win over Moreland in the second round of the Campbell All-Star Bobby Sox Tournament.

Galloway's performance was complimented by some fine pitching on the part of Cindy Richmond, who allowed three hits and whiffed five.

Catcher Tina Brown helped by throwing out four attempting to steal second. Brown was also two-for-four at the plate, including a double, and Trisha Pusateri was also two-for-four.

Donna McCauley hurled West Valley to their first win 10-4 over Campbell. Joell Lima was the losing pitcher.

Lisa Baldwin smacked a two run double over the left fielder's head for Campbell and Pusateri drove in three runs for West Valley.

Baldwin hurled Campbell to its first victory of the double elimination tournament 12-9 over Cupertino. Michelle Olson belted a two run double in the sixth inning for Campbell and Wendy Dove slapped a double in the first inning for Cupertino.

In other action, Moreland whipped Cupertino 18-5 and Foothill outlasted Blue Hills 9-5. Foothill blitzed West Mt. View 13-2.

Local kids triumph in baseball contest

FIVE LITTLE Leaguers from the Campbell area finished ether first or second last Sunday night at San Jose Muncipal Stadium in the District 44 finals of the Hit, Run and Throw competition.

Moreland Little League produced a pair of winners in Gin Vasquez, who won the base running contest (11.4), and Jim Sumich, who took the throwing competition (226').

Sean Suttles of the Moreland Little League and Andy Buchanan of the Campbell Little League shared second place honors in the hitting competition while Campbell Little League's Robert Artery finished runner-up in the running.

The Hit, Run and Throw competition was held prior to the San Jose Missions-Tucson Toros Pacific Coast League game.

Moreland seniors stopped by Cupertino's Tresener

IF IT wasn't for Mike Tresener and his Cupertino American teammates, the Moreland senior league all-stars might have walked away with the District 44 senior Tournament of Champions title last week.

But Tresener and his teammates defeated Moreland twice to eliminate the local all-stars from further TOC competition.

Moreland drew Cupertino American as its first round opponent and promptly wound up in the losers bracket of the tournament when Tresener hurled a perfect game, retiring 21 consecutive batters and striking out 11.

Moreland bounced back to win its next two games against Tri-Cities and West Valley before losing to Tresener and Cupertino American again.

Tim Wise fired a three-hitter and struck out eight to lead Moreland past Tri-Cities 7-3.

Tony Pianto keyed the Moreland attack with a run scoring single in the first and a two run triple in the fourth.

Pianto was also the star of Moreland's 11-3 win over West Valley last Friday.

Pianto flipped a five-hitter and helped himself at the plate by collecting four hits of his own.

Wayne Ulrich chipped in with three hits and both Brent Jensen and Matt Lawrence collected two hits.

Moreland's tournament stay ended a day later, however, when it fell to Cupertino American 7-2.

The Moreland major division all-stars were slated to open their TOC title bid Wednesday evening against Sunnyvale Southern Little League.

The Expos won the Moreland minor division championship recently by defeating the Pilots in two straight games in their best of three series.

San Jose trio aids De Anza

SAN JOSE swimmers Brian Janes, Paul Sims and Meridth Williams all contributed to the strong showing of the De Anza Swim Club at the Santa Clara International swim meet recently.

James and Sims composed half of De Anza's 400 meter free relay team, which won with a time of 3:34.08, four seconds faster than second place Concord.

The San Jose duo also swam on De Anza's 800 meter free relay team, which finished second to Mission Viejo.

Individually, James took a third in the 100 and 200 meter freestyles while Sims finished fourth in the 100 free and 100 fly and fifth in the 200 free and 200 fly.

Williams, just 14 years old, took a fourth in the womens 200 fly.

Tiebreaker troubles

THE San Jose Earthquakes certainly haven't had much luck with the North American Soccer League's controversial tiebreaker rule so far in 1978. The Quakes have been involved in seven tiebreakers this year and have lost five of them.

Del Mar takes over first in Di Maggio league

HIGH SCORING games highlighted PAL-Joe DiMaggio second half action last week.

Del Mar grabbed the top spot of the National division by whipping three American teams.

Mike Westberg was three for four, Ron Hansen blasted a three run homer and Pat Whitaker tossed a four-hitter to lead DM to a 12-0 win over Mt. Pleasant.

Carl Reichardt had two hits for the losers.

Kevin Cesar laced a two run triple and Larry Ragusa lined a run scoring single in Del Mar's 8-7 triumph over Independence. Ragusa was the winning pitcher.

Kirk Perry tossed a four-hitter against Samuel Ayer, 8-2.

Independence handed Overfelt a loss to open the second half. Les Rodrigues' sixth inning single drove in the deciding run.

Maurice Medina's two run single in the last of the seventh capped a four run Overfelt rally and gave the first half champs a 6-5 win over Yerba Buena.

Rudy Castillo was the winning pitcher.

Overfelt lifted its record to 3-1, battering Mt. Pleasant 20-7 and James Lick 8-2.

RALPH Malloy roped four hits and had five RBI's and Ricky Salinas had four hits, leading an 18-hit attack against MP.

Sal Garcia had two hits and Steve Poitra added a two run double for MP.

Randy Rocha, with last inning relief help from Randy Miller, pitched Mt. Pleasant to a 3-0 win over Oak Grove.

Rocha didn't strike out a batter but allowed only three hits, one each to Rob Lynch, Ray Clark and Scott Mallinson.

Rocha walked three straight batters in the fourth but centerfielder Ken Williams gunned down Sal Ribera who tried to score on Mark Wagner's fly out, to end the threat.

Miller had a solo homer for MP.

Kirk Yokoyama pitched a five-hitter and Malloy collected three more hits against James Lick.

Stanley Porter had two hits for the losers.

Shamrocks nab 2nd at weekend tourney

THE CAMPBELL Shamrocks, an independent team composed of 13-year-old players, opened the Watsonville Invitational baseball tournament with two straight wins but lost the finale to the host team this past weekend.

On Saturday, Campbell defeated Mid-Counties 4-1 and Monterey Seaside 3-2 but dropped Sunday's title game to Watsonville 3-1.

Gabe Bryant went three for three, including a run scoring triple, to back Matt Christiansen's four-hitter against Mid-Counties.

Chris Gettler and Steve Sato combined for a seven-hitter against Seaside. Campbell scored its three runs on a sacrifice fly by Mike Catalana and suicide squeeze bunts by David Yates and Gettler.

Randy Nishijima and Bryant were the hitting stars for Campbell during the tournament, each hitting just under .500 for the three games.

Nishijima stole seven bases in the two games played on Saturday.

New National Smoker Study:

Tar/Taste Gap Bridged.

Smokers rate taste of low tar MERIT equal to–or better than–leading high tar brands.

Low tar MERIT, with 'Enriched Flavor'™ tobacco, has shattered the myth of "low tar, low taste."

In a new national smoker study conducted with high tar smokers, MERIT was proven to deliver the flavor of leading high tar brands.

Results Endorse MERIT Breakthrough

Confirmed: Majority of high tar smokers rate MERIT taste equal to—or better than—leading high tar cigarettes tested! Cigarettes having up to twice the tar.

Confirmed: Majority of high tar smokers confirm taste satisfaction of low tar MERIT.

Detailed interviews were also conducted with current MERIT smokers.

Confirmed: 85% of MERIT smokers say it was an "easy switch" from high tar brands.

Confirmed: Overwhelming majority of MERIT smokers say their former high tar brands weren't missed!

Confirmed: 9 out of 10 MERIT smokers not considering other brands.

First Major Alternative To High Tar Smoking

MERIT has proven conclusively that it not only delivers the flavor of high tar brands—but continues to satisfy!

This ability to satisfy over long periods of time could be the most important evidence to date that MERIT is what it claims to be: The first major alternative to high tar smoking.

Kings: 8 mg "tar," 0.6 mg nicotine—

Building boom underway on west Rincon avenue

DEVELOPERS have descended on W. Rincon avenue in increasing numbers recently, and the street may soon become the condominium and townhouse capital of Campbell.

The Campbell Planning Commission last Wednesday approved plans for a 17-unit condominium complex at 236 W. Rincon ave. Two townhouse projects and another condominium proposal on the same street were continued by the commission to the July 18 meeting.

Currently there are seven apartment, condominium or townhouse developments on the street either completed or under construction.

The approved project was okayed after the applicant Marvin A. Bamburg, revised the parking plans from 40 to 58.

However, expansion of an existing development at 134 W. Rincon ave. from 10 to 20 units by the same builder was continued, as were a six-unit townhome development at 257 W. Rincon ave. and a future townhouse development of undetermined size at 338 W. Rincon ave.

In other action, the commission:

• Approved Steven P. Sundeen's request for a reinstatement of plans to construct an office building at 1475 S. Bascom ave.

• Approved Milton and Inge Rosenthal's application for a use permit and approval of plans to expand a day care center at 177 E. Rincon ave.

• Contined a public hearing on Hans Peisker's plans for a warehouse and office facility at 116 Railway ave.

• Continued public hearing on the construction of two residences at 109 S. Fourth st. by Carlos and Maria Perfecto.

• Approved plans for construction of two warehouse buildings by E.L. Eberhardt at 150 and 164 Gilman ave.

Progressive seniors to celebrate 10th birthday

THE CAMPBELL Progressive Seniors marked their 10th anniversary last Sunday — and group director Irma Reese looks back upon their accomplishments during that time with pride.

"We're satisfied with our work," Reese said. "We try our very best never to refuse anyone who needs help."

The center provides numerous essential services to low income seniors. They include free blood pressure tests, transportation to medical facilities, food, and activities designed, as Reese put it, "to get seniors out of the home and into a group."

Reese says the group now has about 250 members compared to the 50 or so it started out with in 1968, and now operates with a staff of 10, up from three ten years ago.

Numerous additions to their original headquarters at 41 W. Rincon ave. have been made, Reese noted. These include a meeting room in the rear and the store the members operate that helps generate income.

REESE STRESSED that the center is not a social club and that its first concern is to provide services not otherwise available to senior citizens.

Reese, who has headed the center for the past eight years, recalled one of the more amusing sidelights of her tenure — when one of the many food donations accepted by the center turned out to be a truckload of pickles.

"It was quite a surprise when the truck drove up to the side and dumped a load of pickles all over the grass," she laughed.

This summer, a grocery store donated 121 loaves of bread for the Fourth of July.

The director praised Campbell's citizens and government for their co-operation. "They've been wonderful," she said. "We could not exist if not for the co-operation of everybody."

THE CENTER'S official birthday is July 16 but the occasion will be celebrated July 30 with a potluck lunch at the adjoining Episcopal Church, according to Reese.

What is the greatest satisfaction Reese has gotten from her work at the center?

"That would have to be when we get a letter of a telephone call from one of those we've helped, telling us they don't know what they'd do if it weren't for the center," Reese said. "We're kind of a lifesaving serivce for seniors."
